Barron v. Astrue, No. 06-15172

JAN 08 2008

HAWKINS, Circuit Judge, specially concurring:

CATHY A. CATTERSON, CLERK
U.S. COURT OF APPEALS

Although it is not at all clear that the ALJ properly discounted the testimony of Barron's daughter or correctly questioned the Vocational Expert with respect to apparent conflicts between his testimony and the Dictionary of Occupational Titles, any error was likely harmless. I therefore concur in affirming the district court's summary judgment grant.
